SENATOR STEWART'S ASSERTION.

How It Differs From the Doctrine of the Gold Men
Editor Journal.—On the 12th instant William M. Stewart, representing Nevada in the Senate of the United States, addressing the Senate upon a resolution introduced by himself, said
"If, however, silver was maintained as money, the silver in a silver dollar would have to be made equally as valuable as the gold in the gold dollar, but that could only be done through the coinage of silver on the same terms and conditions as are applied to the coinage of gold." [See Territorial Enterprise, April 13 1892, Congressional Record, April 13, 1892.]
As I interpret his language, it means that the silver in the silver dollar should be worth as much intrinsically as the gold in the gold dollar, that is to say, as one hundred cents' worth of gold is put in the gold dollar, one hundred cents' worth of silver must be put in the silver dollar, "if silver is maintained as money."
Do you place a different interpretation upon this language? If not do you endorse the opinion expressed? In what respect does that opinion differ from the doctrine of Harrison, Blaine, Sherman and the rest of the "gold conspirators?"
Yours truly,
ROBT. M. CLARK.
The language above quoted and attributed to Senator Stewart, as the JOURNAL reads it, explains itself, and means exactly what it says, that is, if silver is maintained as money, the silver in a silver dollar must be made equally as valuable as the gold dollar, not by putting more silver in the silver dollar, but by coming silver on the same terms and conditions as gold.
Stewart's opinion differs from the doctrine of Harrison, Blaine and Sherman very essentially. He would coin silver on the same terms and conditions as are applied to the coinage of gold, they would make silver a commodity like lead or iron, with no fixed value, and would put all the silver that could be purchased in the London market with a gold dollar in the silver dollar. He would bring silver to par, that is to say, to $1 29 29 cents per ounce at once and fix its value at that price by coining it on the same terms as gold, they would have the silver dollar, if they permitted it to circulate as money, contain perhaps 550 grains of pure silver one day and 450 grains the next, as brokers decreed. Stewart would make the dollar containing 412½ grains of standard silver equal in every respect to the dollar containing 25 8 10th grains of standard gold, Harrison, Sherman & Co. would make the gold dollar only the unit of value. Stewart would encourage the mining industry by giving the producer $1 29 29 per ounce for silver bullion at the mint. Harrison, Sherman & Co. compel the miner to sell his bullion to the Government at whatever price London and New York brokers may place on the metal. Stewart's principle would not only open the mint to silver and gold, but would also give incentive employment to thousands, the doctrine of Harrison, Blaine and Sherman has closed our mint, shut down our mints, caused general depression in business and compelled thousands of people to leave the State.
THAT GIRL FROM MEXICO
To Be Presented in Reno April 28th
Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew will be at the Opera House on next Thursday night, and will present for the first time here "That Girl from Mexico." The Sacramento Record Union speaks as to how "That Girl from Mexico." Mr. Drew was Jack Randolph, the man who married "That Girl." The piece is full of comic situations and has a well defined strain of pathos running through it. It is called a comedy, but really approaches farce at a number of points. Lengthy comment is not necessary. It is enough to say that all the work of the stars, as well as most of the work by the supporting company, was well done. It was a finished and artistic performance of the more of which one saw the more one liked it. The best part of it all was the promise for the future for legitimate comedy that Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew both hold out. Both come of good theatrical families and have been carefully educated for the profession which they already adorn. Their aspirations are high, artistic rather than sordid and mercenary. Their careers will be watched with interest and they will always be welcomed in Sacramento.
The World Enraptured.
The fortunes of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare in comfort and convenience are almost unlimited and when Sirip of Lags was first produced he world was enraptured with the only effect that we know, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring time or, in fact, at any time and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.
A Sad Spectacle
Silver State.—The spectacle presented by the Gazette and its Democratic correspondents weeping in unison for fear that silver men may injure those great and good gold bugs, Harrison and Cleveland, is enough to melt the heart of a wooden Indian.
A Crank
It is constantly turning the world, keeping it in commotion. Its vigorous exercise keeps the whole body active. But it is the constant going that wears. You've no time to rest, no time to eat, and hardly time to live. It's miserable living at the best. Constant indigestion, biliousness and constipation. The body crabs needs attention. Keep the liver as active with Simon's Liver Regulator and you can go as much as you please.
Mr. Fredrick received a letter from John Piper yesterday, making the Elite Musical Company an offer to give an entertainment in Virginia in the month of May.

LOVELOCK NOTES.

Everybody on the Humboldt for Silver
LOVELOCK, Nevada, April 17, 1892.
Editor STATE JOURNAL.—Everyone is busy around Lovelock at present, especially the farmers. It is plainly to be seen that this place is gaining in population and importance, both from a mining and farming point of view. Although silver and all other products have declined in price during the last six months, people have not lost heart. It is strange that when silver goes down that everything but gold goes with it, but still gold bugs call silver a commodity. If that is true, and considering that it is the truest of values, then of what use is gold? It indicates nothing, it is fixed and rigid, in fact, too much so for the use of the people.
To show what effect the silver question is having on this community I will state an occurrence which happened at the Republican primaries held here Saturday at the hour to hold the election no one could be found to conduct it, and not one person wanted to vote. However, one of the inspectors who was appointed by the Central Committee thought that some sort of return to headquarters ought to be made, and being of a poetical turn of mind he wrote out a report, attached it to the ballot of the lone Republican, put it in the ballot box and forwarded it to the Central Committee. His report was as follows:
"Sealed is the oracle, twins are born, Empty is the ballot box the Republicans are gone."
I suppose by twins is meant Cleveland and Harrison, or Hill and Harrison. However, it was soon ascertained where the Republicans had gone by going to Young's Hall, where a Silver Club was being organized, they were found in numbers and not alone, but with Democrats. A Silver Club was organized and every voter in Lovelock at the time signed it—being about 75. This was done inside of two hours. When we consider that this represents about one-half of all the voters in this precinct it is significant. I have heard that some papers assert that this "Silver League business" is a Democratic dodge. That may be, but if it is it is a dodge in the right direction. When a person sees a blow aimed at him he dodges to escape it. The people here not only have blows aimed at them but they have been hit, hit hard, and are being hit, and see harder blows coming, and now they not only propose to vote, but are going to strike back. When voters calmly consider that party is simply conveyances to civil government, that in itself, it is anything at all, it is principle, and when party fails as the proper conveyance to carry out the principle of honest government it is useless, except as a toast, for the schemers. If a person gets into a railway train and pays his fare to San Francisco, but instead of being landed there, is placed in the middle of a desert, he would think he had been deceived, yet that is just where every elector has been placed figuratively, who has in the past voted either the Democratic or the Republican ticket with the hope of getting free coinage. And now we must dodge.
DODGE
Good for the South.
There is a great deal of gold going on in our mind. I thought I might get a little more in getting up my mind and said "Fretful, I'm the man who furnished the orphan asylum with meat at twelve cents a pound when it cost but six cents."
When he sat down another fellow jumped up and said "Dutchen, I want to make a claim breast of it. I'm the man who stole the meat that he furnished to the orphan asylum. Pay for us!" Atlanta Constitution

A Case of Home-Made Trade
A case of Home-Made Trade was brought before the court yesterday. The defendant was charged with having sold a horse to his wife's sister-in-law for a price of $100, while the horse was worth only $50. The court found in favor of the plaintiff and awarded damages of $50.
